

Planning For Your Site

1. In the space below, sketch the general layout of your site. Include your banner, links, main content area, as well as any other cells or divisions.

2. In the space below, create a flowchart for your layout. Name all pages, and use arrows to illustrate site navigation.

